An entry sheet is provided below:
You should either PRINT your names in your preferred four ball across the row or individually, in which case you will be allocated to a table.

Please note that Jim Sadler requires your full payment before your names can be added to the final table plan. A suggestion is that one member of the four pays in full and collects the outstanding monies for his chosen partners. We must have your money by 27th November at the latest, in order to be placed on the table plan.

Please pay promptly. Payment can be made by cash, cheque or bank transfer. hcw
